It's time to Celebrate! Increased attendance at the Pottawattamie County Parks reaffirms the vital role that natural areas, open spaces, and beautiful vistas have in keeping us connected to nature and mentally healthy during the Covid-19 impact.

Here is our event this year:

Each autumn, the Conservation Foundation hosts the Go Wild for Conservation fundraiser. After considerable research and discussion, the Pottawattamie Conservation Foundation board is focused on what we can do this year. We are inviting you to a virtual event to keep Conservation staff, volunteers, caterers, and the public safe.

The funds PCF raises annually go for County Park programs and improvements. While attendance at the parks is increased, revenues from camping fees, cabin rentals, and other programs is dramatically reduced.

PCF is grateful for the support you provide. So, this year instead of buying tickets to our beer tasting and purchasing auction items, we are offering a virtual way you can still show your appreciation of the Pottawattamie County Parks.

Showing support for the Pottawattamie Conservation mission is easy! Please mail in your sponsorship with the provided envelope to 223 South 6th Street, Council Bluffs, IA 51501.

Stay connected with the parks by logging onto our website www.pottcoconservation.com to learn about upcoming plans and events at the parks and remember to check back frequently to enjoy special videos and interesting facts.

And THANK YOU for your interest and support! Go Wild!!!
